Subject: Sudden hearing loss following vaccination against COVID-19

To whom it may concern,

As director of the department for Health security of the Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare, I certify that:

- I am the competent authority for assessing whether research requires institutional ethical review or if the Finnish Communicable Diseases Act (Tartuntatautilaki 1227/2016, <https://www.finlex.fi/en/laki/kaannokset/2016/en20161227>) and the law on the duties of the Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare (Laki Tervyden ja hyvinvoinnin laitoksesta 668/2008, https://www.finlex.fi/en/laki/kaannokset/2008/en20080668_20080668.pdf) allow the implementation of the research without seeking further ethical review.
- The research presented by Nieminen T et al. in "Sudden hearing loss following vaccination against COVID-19" did not require further ethical review before implementation as its aim was to monitor vaccine safety (Tartuntatautilaki 1227/2016).
